Prantic is carrying out social activities from its inception. However, to carry forward this activity in a more focused manner, we have decided to form a dedicated team especially ladies members who can take this forward.

To begin the journey, Prantic Cultural Society is organizing a carnival JOY OF GIVING on 16th February 2014 (Sunday) with the following objective:

Vision: Enabling the economically deprived families in and around Indirapuram and Ghaziabad.

Mission: Facilitation of education, health, medical attention & self help activities for under privileged groups of society.

Venue: Ghaziabad Haat, Swarna Jayani Park, Indirapuram.

Timings: 10:30am to 6 pm .

The carnival would include the following activities:

- ❖ Sports & fun activities for under privileged children
- ❖ Prizes & refreshments for under privileged children
- ❖ Musical band by Gen-X of Prantic
- ❖ Entertainment programs from various residential societies of Indirapuram
- ❖ Stalls from banks, play schools, handicrafts, artificial jewellery, garments & eateries

Fund raised through this carnival would be solely utilised for the purpose of:

- Sponsoring education of meritorious children of under privileged families
- Health & medical attention of economically weaker sections of society
- Vocational training for women for economically weaker sections of society

We request everyone to encourage us by attending this event.

For stall, contribution and participation, please contact Mrs Srilekha Nandi @9871044509.
